PRESS RELEASE

Lux Group ApS adds new, revolutionary product to its selection

The Blackhead Killer™ peel-off mask has been one of Lux Group's the best-selling products with more than a million sales worldwide. The new Blackhead Killer™ quick healing cream expands the famous Blackhead Killer™ brand.

Lux Group ApS proudly presents the Blackhead Killer™ quick healing cream - a spot-on cream that is used to effortlessly treat skin impurities caused by acne. The Danish company is one of the leading international beauty shops. The company designs, manufactures and sells their high-quality, luxury products to people all over the world for very affordable prices.

The Blackhead Killer™ quick healing cream clears red, irritated skin caused by acne - a skin condition caused by clogged hair follicles - in a fast and efficient way. The cream penetrates deep into the skin and clears the hair follicles, soothing the skin and causing the infamous red marks to disappear.

Lux Group ApS now offers the Blackhead Killer™ quick healing cream for a special introductory price with orders of Blackhead Killer™ peel-off mask and other premium products. The Blackhead Killer™ quick healing cream will be available for individual sale shortly.
